

Sheltered English Instruction: A Guide for Administrators

Course Description: The course provides K-12 administrators with theoretical, historical, cultural, linguistic, and instructional information regarding English language learners (ELLs). Topics will include federal and state laws/regulations related to ELLs; second language acquisition; WIDA principles and standards; culturally responsive classrooms; effective sheltered English instructional strategies; and family and community engagement. As part of the course, participants will observe instruction in classrooms with ELLs and reflect on the effectiveness of the observed teaching strategies for ELLs.

The course fulfills the 15-hour re-certification requirement.

About the Instructor: Dr. Margaret M. Harrington has been a bilingual/ESL teacher for over 35 years. Until her recent retirement, she was an elementary bilingual teacher in Providence, RI. She previously worked in Chelsea, and New Bedford, MA. She was a Peace Corps volunteer in Santa Rosa de Copán, Honduras. She is currently an adjunct professor for several colleges and universities in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, as well as a facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Second Education (DESE) Sheltered English Immersion (SEI) course. She has offered other courses for TEC in Sheltered English Immersion.
